NEWEST TENANT

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (February 9, 2016)— Macken Companies has announced that Edible Arrangements has joined the growing list of retail tenants at Palmetto Gardens Plaza. NAMUR Corporation, which owns Edible Arrangements, signed a long-term lease with options to extend. Tim Neal of Neal Realty & Investments represented both the ownership and Edible Arrangements. T-Mobile, Cell Phone Repair, and Lee Nails are among the other tenants at the 63,000 square-foot shopping center anchored by a Wal-Mart Neighborhood Store. Approximately 4,500 square feet of inline space remains available for lease.

Palmetto Gardens Plaza is located at 3799 NW 167th St. in Miami Gardens. It fronts the Palmetto Expressway at Douglas Road in Miami Gardens, offering tenants high visibility from the 170,000 vehicles that drive by each day.

Palmetto Gardens Plaza was developed by Alan S. Macken and Andrew K. Verzura in a joint venture with DZD Palmetto, owned by Zvi and Daniel Shiff of DZD Holdings. VCM Builders, an affiliate of Macken Companies constructed the plaza as well as tenant interiors.
